2010 Oldtown Calendar published

Natick, MA— Natick's Oldtown Calendar Project has announced publication of the new 2010 Oldtown Calendar. The Calendar is a fundraiser for local nonprofit groups. It also provides a platform for passionate local photographers, and features images taken in the area, from Natick Common and the Natick Community Organic Farm to Elm Bank and the Charles River.

Winning photographs are selected by popular ballot each year at the Oldtown Photo Calendar Competition. Elaine Early's photograph, titled "Currier & Ives Presents Elm Bank" (February) received the most votes, and was awarded "Best of Show". Early is a longtime Natick resident.

Dan Gee, Tod Dimmick, Ron Mura, David Parish, Eileen Nelson, Renee Bender-Cohn, Jay Ball, Maureen Sullivan, Denise Harney, Rebecca Hunnewell, Audrey Lawrence, and Dennis Brown created other winning images in the 2010 Calendar.

The 2010 Calendar is sponsored by two local businesses, Cognex Corporation and Belkin Family Lookout Farm. "The Oldtown Calendar highlights the many of the beautiful parts of this area," said John Burns, Farm Manager. "It also provides a platform for passionate local photographers, and helps build a sense of community. I'm delighted that Belkin Family Lookout Farm is a part of the fun."
